

Walnut Hill

2010 FACT SHEET

CELEBRATING 39 YEARS

The world's largest gathering of carriages and coach horses.

- WHO? SPONSOR: The Pittsford Carriage Association, Inc., a not-for-profit educational organization hosts this international carriage competition for the purpose of advancing art and traditions of driving and for the promotion of the public interest in the contributions made by the horse and carriage to our country's cultural, social, and economic history.
- WHAT? 39th ANNUAL WALNUT HILL CARRIAGE COMPETITION
- WHEN? Wednesday through Sunday, August 11-15
Performances daily from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Friday evening at 5:30 p.m.
- WHERE? WALNUT HILL FARM
397 West Bloomfield Road, Pittsford, New York
- WHY?
- To give area residents and spectators the opportunity to see horse drawn carriages of all sizes from pony carts to road coaches on display and in competition.
 - To educate the public about the role and significance of the horse and carriage in America's history.
 - To provide carriage enthusiasts the opportunity to practice their art with the challenge of competition from accomplished drivers.
 - To establish a late 19th century festive country fair atmosphere with TENT HOUSED BOUTIQUES, ENGLISH GARDENS, PERIOD REFRESHMENTS, and SPECIAL EXHIBITS as the stage for this living showcase of Victorian life in America.

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS:

"One Arm Bandit": Ten time Professional Rodeo Cowboy Act (PRCA) of the year. Rodeo Entertainment "Guilty of stealing the show," Lynn Payne is an accomplished Bronc Rider, Horse Trainer and Roper. He will put on a show that you will be sure to remember for years to come. At top speed, Lynn pops a bull whip in each hand while maneuvering his horse with his legs, in order to round up his choice of livestock and take them to the high country. The most sought after act in the world.

The Kateland Farm American Miniature Horse Dressage Drill Team: These "Minis" and their drivers will amaze you with the precision of their entertaining musical drive.

Wegman's Ascot Picnic Night: Friday evening, August 13th step into the world of "My Fair Lady" while you cheer on your favorite horses and carriages in competition, enjoy ours or your own gourmet picnic supper, and be thrilled by the romance of it all. Proceeds for the evening benefit the William M. Remley Memorial fund.

Rochester Scottish Pipe Band: Always entertaining – Sunday 11:30 a.m.

TICKETS: At the Gate: Adults: $10.00 Children: Half Price

PARKING is FREE

MORE INFORMATION: 585-385-2555 or www.walnuthillfarm.com